I DON'T KNOW THAT.

I never a mother passing See,
Who had a wealth of golden hair.
Of course the hair was not her own,
But on another's head was given;
But I didn't know that.

Had a complexion like a rose,
Which is the flower a garden grows,
For the flower never seen before;
Of course she thought it was a rose;
But I didn't know that.

Her mouth a perfect Cupid's bow;
Would make a divine bathrobe go
And strawberries jump into the lake;
Of course, it was a penitent kiss,
But I didn't know that.

Her mother she appears to be,
I want her out in time with me;
She'd make her mind up long before
To set her golden words or noise;
But I didn't know that.

She said I hardly made a hit
With her—there was no doubt of it;
She out class over and over again;
So many, many other men;

But I didn't know that.

Then there I made a different plan,
I said, "You must let's wed," but she said,
"I would like to, but, see here,
My grandfathers would not let me."
But I didn't know that.

Plain bread and beans in a cabin
Seems a treat in a parlor and a wall at the door.

DRIVING HORSE SHOW.

John T. Jones, years ago one of the best known trainers of horses in Kentucky, has begun working a string of horses at Fort Worth, Texas, and will make a campaign in that state the coming season. Mr. Jones is the father of Mr. Ben Jones, the young trainer who will handle the Little horses this year.

James R. Magowan, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., says that the sensational racing three-year-old, Mainland, now owned by him, will not be raced during 1913, but will make a season in the stud at the farm near Mt. Sterling. Mainland is in rugged health, excellent shape, and ready to do battle with the best in the land, but Mr. Magowan wishes to give him another year's rest. J. Malcolm Forbes, 2000, will also make a season in the stud, but will be raced later in the fall. The friends of this great young horse believe that with a favorable training season he will be able to last a mile right at 2 minutes.

Report from Indianapolis, where V. L. Shuler is working Peter McCormick, is to the effect that the brown son of Peter the Great is taking his work well and has wonered nicely and will be out this year in his class. Shuler talks very enthusiastically about Peter Mc., and says that he will certainly trot a mile in 2:05 by late autumn. Peter Mc. is known to possess 2 minute speed and it is no idle claim to predict a mark that fast for this horse.

Charles H. Scott, of Sherburne, has sold his fast colt, Kentucky Tramp, by Kentucky Todd, dam by the Tramp, to Omar Van Kirk, for a private price. The colt will be trained the coming season by H. C. Moody.

Ben Jones, trainer for Little Stock farm, has taken up the following horses and is jogging them on the road:

Bay filly, two years old, by Silent Brook, dam a sister of Butter-milk.

Bay filly, two years old, by The Native, out of dam of Bob Douglas, 2507.

Bay filly, two years old, by Tregantle, out of sister to Miss Adeline, 2506.

Bay filly, by Tregantle, three years old.

Bay stallion, three years old, by Toddlington, dam Owassa, 2505.

Brown filly, one year old, by Directum Spier, dam Orgena.

Bay stallion, one year old, by Peter the Great, 2507, dam Stellie Cheneau.

All of these horses are in excellent condition and about May 1st will be moved to the Montgomery County, Ky., Fair Grounds, where they will be trained. Sister Ella is heavy in foal to Silent Brook and will not be trained this season. Silent Brook is looking as vigorous as a two-year-old and will be in the stud this season, and his books are rapidly filling.—The Blue Grass Journal.

Indigestion

causes heartburn, sour stomach, nervousness, nausea, impure blood, and more trouble than many different kinds of diseases. The food you eat ferments in your stomach, and the poisons it forms are absorbed into your whole system, causing many distressing symptoms. At the first sign of indigestion, try the old, reliable, vegetable liver powder, to quickly cleanse your system from these undesirable poisons.

Thetford's Black-Draught

Mrs. Riley Lamont, of Goodwater, Minn., says: "I suffered for years from dyspepsia and heartburn. Thetford's Black-Draught, in small doses, cured my heartburn in a few days, and now I can eat without distress." Try it.
